

On May 25th 2018, new Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data became valid and repealed Directive 95/46 / EC (General Regulation on the protection of personal data). In connection with the change of legislation, we are obliged to inform you about your personal data held by our organization, how are they protected and how we use them.

1. Processing your data

The European Association Siuiseki, as Administrator hereby informs you in accordance with the GDPR about the processing of your personal data and your rights.

2. What are your rights

We process your data transparently and correctly, in accordance with GDPR. You have the right to access your data and the right to correct them. If we are processing your data to which you have given consent, you are entitled to withdraw this consent at any time. If you wish to revoke your consent to processing and there is no other legal reason for processing your data, you have the right to have your data deleted or restrict the processing.

3. The purposes of processing your data

We process your personal data to the extent necessary for:

- compliance with obligations under generally binding legal regulations
- Sending messages and reports on our organization's activities
- sending the Suiseki Journal
- Organizing exhibitions, congresses and lectures, including invitations and accommodation arrangements
- Promotion of our activity on our website, which includes photographs taken at our events
- Ensuring the protection of our rights and legitimate interests

4. What personal data we process

We process personal data to the extent of: name and surname, address, date of birth, and e-mail.

5. The processing period of your data

Your personal data are kept by us for the duration of your ESA membership. Upon termination of your membership, we process and hold your personal data only for purposes and for the time necessary in accordance with legally binding regulations. Once this legally binding period is over we will delete your personal information from our database and list of members.

